Dedication

The Seniors of 1955 dedicate this volume of the "The Ace" to Wade Libey, originator of Ashley's unusual F. F. A. Canadian Camp Project.

Ashley FFA Boys Camp In Canada

By GORDON BLOOM

MOST VOCATIONAL Agricultural teachers in Indiana combine 4-H and FFA into an overall program to reach all farm boys in the community. The Ashley Chapter in making an effort to carry out such objectives, has developed an unusual solu-

Ashley is a small town located in Albion County and is surrounded by general farming area. Several years ago the advisor, Wade Libey realized more interest could be created in the 4-H junior leader work if the junior leaders were given the opportunity to do something unusual and something they really were interested in after they had completed their club work for the year.

That was the beginning of the program which has now developed into a major activity of the FFA chapter—self-supporting camping program. For years, Libey had camped and fished in Canada, and the boys wanted to go camping and fishing there, too. Many things grew out of the first year's camping experience which Libey sponsored by furnishing the camping equipment and most of the expense money.

Sponsor 4-H Clubs

As a result, the chapter members decided that as a part of their program of work, they should include the sponsorship of the 4-H clubs in the two townships served by the local high school. They also decided that the junior leaders of the 4-H clubs should be members of the local FFA chapter as well as 4-H members in their respective townships, and that a co-operative program to finance the trips had to be devised.

This led to the chapter's financing of the 4-H clubs as well as the camping trip each summer for two junior leaders from each club selected in co-operation with the county agent.

Each year more FFA members were

Youth In Action . . .

The Ashley Chapter of Future Farmers of America is well known throughout the state and across the whole nation because of our Canadian camping trips and co-operative leadership. We are the only chapter in the state and one of the few across the nation that has a trip such as ours.

Each summer our advisor and some of the chapter go up to Canada for about ten days. The boys sleep in tents and fish and hike in the daytime. We take side trips from the camp and are gone into the woods for a couple of days at a time.

Boys earn their trips by making profit for the chapter. The boys sell such articles as: jello, garden seeds, farm magazines, scrap and also by raising hogs for the chapter.

Some of the co-operative activities include sponsoring the 4-H clubs, raising corn for the chapter's hogs, which includes four purebred gilts.

Class History

Say, do you remember that hot August day when forty of us green Freshmen started struggling on our upward climb? Mr. Fee was our class sponsor at that time. We elected Janice Allen, President; Eldon Skelly, Vice-President; Janet Harmes, Secretary; Bill Stackhouse, Treasurer; Sally Mergy, Historian; and Pat Walker, Reporter. There were two parties that year, one a skating party at the Silvermoon Skating Rink. The second was a wiener roast out back of the schoolhouse and afterwards we all went to the show at Angola. April rolled around and we were eager for May and vacation.

The following August we began our Sophomore year with thirty-eight students. Susie Pfefferkorn, Richard Wolf, Laura Krantz, and Frank Albright left us. We got two new classmates that year who were Gilbert Spencer and Paul Chavez. Paul Everitt was our class sponsor and the elected officers were: Eldon Skelly, President; Jack Smith, Vice-President; Pat Walker, Secretary; Donald Shipe, Treasurer; Janet Harmes, Historian; and Donna Shumaker, Reporter. Only one exciting party was held that year. It was a party at Pokagon, where we played games and had a wiener roast; then we all jumped in a bus and headed for Angola to see a show. That year was a very important one. We ordered and received class rings and sweaters. The end of the second term came at last. We found that we were half way through high school and it wasn't a bit bad.

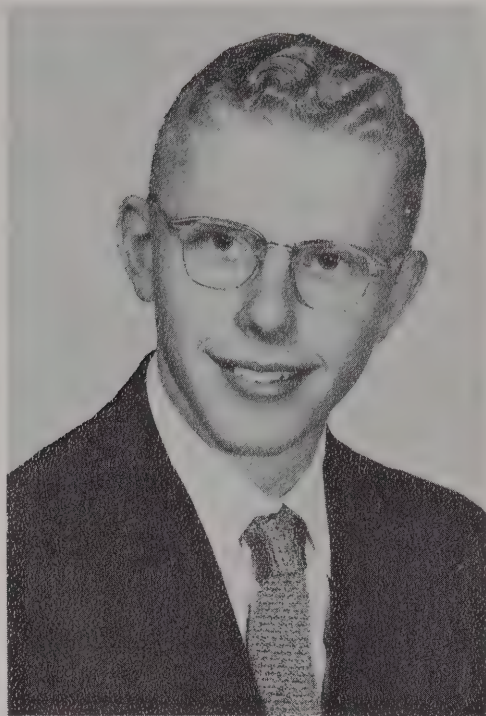

We returned in the fall all ready to pitch in and make money for the Junior and Senior trip. We elected our class officers: Pat Walker, President; Lois Perkins, Vice-President; Janice Allen, Secretary; Annette Bender, Treasurer; Eldon Skelly, Historian; and Janet Harmes, Reporter. There were thirty-seven of us that year. Joan Kneubuhler left us and Joan Hartsock came from Avilla. We put on a play, "LOVE IS TOO MUCH TROUBLE"; we thought it was a big success. We had two paper drives and two bake sales. Finally the big day for the Junior and Senior trip came--four wonderful and exciting days that we will always remember!

Our Senior year soon rolled around and we were on our last step of our exciting adventure at Ashley High School. We elected our class officers: Eldon Skelly, President; Janice Allen, Vice-President; Lois Perkins, Secretary; Annette Bender, Treasurer; Pat Walker and Carroll Stout as Reporters. We went down to Roberts Studio at Fort Wayne and had our pictures taken in October. In December, we put on a play, which everyone enjoyed, called, "A DANCE WITH OUR MISS BROOKS." We helped the Juniors with their bake sale in February because we are looking forward to that five day trip to Washington. This about finishes it for us. It has been wonderful here at Ashley, but we are now on our own.

Class Will

Being of a sound mind and of a disposing disposition, I, as the representative of this Senior Class of Ashley High School, do hereby will and bequeath the following articles:

To the Board of Education, that has so generously provided for us during these four years past, I do hereby bequeath all the broken window panes and chairs, the finger prints on the walls, and the ink stains on the floors and desks, these same to be held in trust for the succeeding grades.

To our highly esteemed principal of public schools, Mr. Frederick, I bequeath the new book of rules that this present class has labored over so faithfully for the past months, said book containing provisions for an increase of holidays to one, bi-weekly, changing the hour for opening of school to nine o'clock, instead of eight-thirty, and closing at one, with two recesses fifty-nine minutes each. Said book also recommends the purchase of a silver waiter, on which the credits of promotion be presented to the pupils, instead of the old way of studying for them.

To our much loved teachers, each and every one, I bequeath a liberal yearly anunity of examination papers to grade, note-books to correct, and averages to make.

To the library I bequeath all the detective stories, Wild West Magazines and other junk we prized so highly and read so carefully all year.

To the janitor of this Ashley High School, I bequeath all the mud we have tracked into the building, all the chewing gum, so generously stuck on the floors, and the millions of loose papers in the lockers and desks.

To the Junior Class, following us, I do hereby bequeath our old seats, with the tacks that tear our clothes; our lockers, which will not lock, our old books with most of the leaves loose or gone; all the mistakes we made, and all the knowledge we failed to learn. To that same class, I bequeath the proud privilege of being Seniors and lording it over the younger ones, of always heading the lines and getting the choicest seats and food during lunch.

To the Sophomores, following us, I bequeath our dignity, all our old notes which I'm sure they would prize as highly as we have and any other junk they find lying around.

To the Freshmen, who are the babies of this crop, but sometimes act older than we do, all the book reports we left half done, our years to use and years to come.

Lastly, we, the following individuals, do hereby will these our most prized possessions.

I, Janice Allen, will my calm and quiet ways to Mary Biggerstaff.

I, Pearl Bailey, will my knitting needles to Eno Hartman, in hopes that he will become a better knitter than I am.

I, Annette Bender, will my quiet voice to Judy Biggerstaff.

I, Janet Brand, will all my money and money bags to Mr's. Everitts so she doesn't have to snatch them.

I, Paul Chavez, will my ability to go with girls to Chuck Mergy.

I, Richard Childs, will my loud and boistrous ways to Frank Stoy.

I, Jay Freed, will my chair in English class to a dear Junior who will probably wish he would have paid more attention.

I, David Hamman, will my static electricity to the school so the light bill won't be so high.

I, Janet Harmes, will all my "successful" experiments in Chemistry to anyone who knows what they are doing.

I, Joan Hartsock, will my ability to always be in a hurry to Dollie Arney.

I, Carl Kessler, will my sense of humor to Charles Hertel.

I, Robert Kugler, refuse to will anything because I need everything I have.
 (My middle name is stubborn.)

I, Myrna McClellan, will my height and figure to Beverly Stout.

I, Fred Maxwell, will my ability to lose "PIKE" in Canada to Mike Scranage.

I, Paul Miller, will my ability to be an F.F.A. reporter to someone that can do better..

I, Dale Newcomer, will my philosophy about driving to the great Ark Rinehart who everyone knows needs it.

I, Lois Perkins, will my A's in English to Betty Walker.

I, David Rinehart, will my basketball ability to Ferdinand Schortgen.

I, Bob Schiffli, will my coon hound to Miss Gfellers.

I, Al Scranage, will my ability to run cross country to Sammy Shepard.

I, Dan Scranage, will my bottle of red hair dye to Wylene Farrington.

I, Don Shipe, will my job in the lunchroom to any one who thinks they can serve seconds and get away with it.

I, Donna Shumaker, will the Model A. I drive to the Drivers Training class so they can really learn to drive a good car.

I, Eldon Skelly, will my blonde curly hair to Barbara Reinoehl.

I, Jack Smith, will my curly hair to Ned Brand so he can save money.

I, Mary Smith, will my stout lungs to Margaret Baird, who needs them.

I, Bill Stackhouse, will my casanova ways to Hugh Voges.

I, Carroll Stout, will to my little brother Freddy the job of carrying on the Stout tradition through high school.

I, Loyola Strawser, will my old banged up clairnet to anyone who wants it.

I, Glen Voges, will my driving ability to Floyd Parker.

I, Pat Walker, will the office work to Phil Clark who never hurries.

I, June Wilhelm, will my extra pounds to Norma Jean Johnson.

To the neighbors of our school, I do hereby will and bequeath the echoes of all the noises we have thrown at their pet cats and dogs, the knowledge of flower beds trampled and the memory of impish faces peering at them through the fences.

To this school, our beloved Alma Mater, in order to show our appreciation of all that it has done for us, I do in this last will and testment, hereby bequeath the amount of ten thousand memories, with which to erect a bronze tablet, a lasting memorial of this Senior Class of 1955

Basketball

The Ashley Aces had an unlucky season this year. They still lacked the height advantages of some of the other teams, but they still showed the noted speed and aggressiveness of the Ashley Aces.

Our record shows a record of seven wins and fourteen losses. The Aces only fell short of a very few points of claiming several more victories.

The scores of the games for the season were as follows:

Ashley 53	Salem	54	Ashely 79	Metz	63
Ashley 51	Garrett	67	Ashley 68	Orland	54
Ashley 60	Ligonier	66	Ashley 45	Riverdale	51
Ashley 51	Montpelier	56	Ashley 71	Hamilton	59
Ashley 51	Avilla	56	Ashley 65	Butler	76
Ashley 50	Wolcottville	56	Ashley 68	Fremont	79
Ashley 76	Edon, Ohio	58	Ashley 65	Salem	63
Ashley 34	Waterloo	49	Ashley 55	Waterloo	64
Ashley 61	Pleasant Lake	55	Ashley 88	Pleasant Lake	61
Ashley 56	Butler	68	Ashley 46	Metz	47
	(County Tourney)			(Sectional)
Ashley 56	Waterloo	58
	(County Tourney)

Second Team Basketball

The second team for Ashley still shows a bright future by claiming twelve victories from eighteen games. The team was made up of three Juniors-Dean Smith, Robert Bohler, and Leonard Swartzengraber. Eight Sophomores-John Weilbaker, Don Casselman, Mike Scranage, Bill Wickerham, Frank Stoy, John Dilley, Norman Leas, and Don Shipe. Four Freshmen-Jerry Forrest, Phil Clark, Lyle Newcomer, and Vincent Geistwhite.

Junior High School Basketball

The grade team had a rugged schedule this year. We played eleven games. They were with the following schools: Angola, Butler, Waterloo, Garrett, Angola, Fairfield, Waterloo, P. Lake, Butler, Butler, and Waterloo. We won two games.

Track

The track team looks very promising for the coming season, even though we lost our sprinter, Charles Hampshire, and our shot putter, Jerry Parnell. With these two lettermen gone, Ashley still has eight lettermen left. They are as follows: Eldon Skelly, Sr., Al Scranage, Sr., Gilbert Dilley, Jr., Carroll Stout, Sr., Dave Rinehart, Sr., Dick Davis, Sr., Bill Stackhouse, Sr., and Dan Scranage, also a Sr.

Cross Country

The cross country team looked good this year. The team ran against Orland, Fremont, Riverdale, Howe Military, Avilla, Angola, and Wolcottville. The team was composed of fourteen runners. Of those, there were five lettermen. They are as follows: Mike Scranage, So., Eldon Skelly, Sr., Dan Scranage, Sr., Al Scranage, Sr., and Danny King, a Jr.

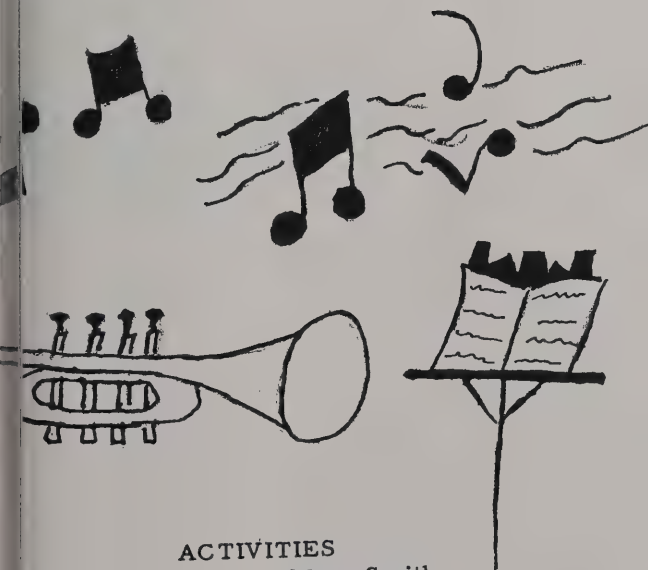

Baseball

The Ashley Baseball Team had a fairly good season this year, by winning four out of seven games. The scores were as follows:
